Dear Sylvia:

Thank you very much for coming to talk with us on Monday afternoon. My colleagues and I enjoyed talking with you. Needless to say, you have a very impressive background that is in so many ways applicable to the job we have at hand here.

There are a number of other individuals with whom we are talking about potential employment on the staff of the development office. We intend to have this task finished by the end of May. In addition, we are a small organization, as you know, so have opportunities to tailor positions to the attributes of individuals. With these two conditions in mind, I should think it would be appropriate for us to plan to talk again toward the latter part of May.

Once again, it was a pleasure to see you.

Sincerely yours,

Fred G. Lehmann
